College Profile

St Alphonsa College of Arts and Science, Karinkal in Kanyakumari District of Tamil Nadu, India, is situated in a very pulsating, interwoven community where academic curiosity and Creativity prosper. Its dedicated faculty mentor and encourage their students to expand their perspectives and sharpen their critical thinking and communication skills.

The main goal of the college is to Educate, Excel and Empower the local community of Kanyakumari through quality education. We believe that through our efforts we will be able to equip a socially and economically diverse student body to gain individual intellectual achievement and growth. We aim to help them develop awareness on social, political, cultural and ethical issues that affect us all.

Along with our initiative of mentoring and guiding the students, we offer excellent programmes in artistic development and substantial pre-professional preparation. Individual attention is paid to every student in their various walks of life. Our philosophy is in accordance with the mission of Church based on the teaching of Jesus Christ, the teacher par excellence. Majority of the students here come from lower economical background. The services offered by Syro Malabar Church, especially the mission Diocese of Thuckalay, have extended its new venture in the form of St Alphonsa College of Arts and Science.
